

Reading websites for parents

<http://www.adlit.org/> - K-12 This site has information for parents on struggling readers.

<http://www.bing.com/search?FORM=SL5DDF&PC=SL5D&q=k12reader&src=IE-SearchBox&adlt=strict>

This site is geared more toward elementary students. It provides help with spelling, grammar and comprehension skills.

<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/> This site has helpful tips and activities to help parents continue education at home.

<http://www.pbs.org/parents/> This site has educational games for K-4th graders

<http://www.readingrockets.org/> This is a K-4 site that gives helpful tips for improving phonics, fluency and spelling.

<http://www.readwritethink.org/> This is a K-12 site that offers student interactives, and parent tips and how to's

<http://www.scholastic.com/parents/> This site has resources for all grades, reading club, calendars.